

Agreement

- By submitting this application form, you confirm that you are requesting admission to a UCW educational program ("Program") and are providing the above information about you (your "personal data") for these purposes. UCW requires this information for legitimate business purposes, and, at your request, in order to make decisions about your admission to the Program.
- Your personal data will be collected, used and disclosed only for these purposes and, in the event you are admitted to the Program, to manage your enrollment and attendance at UCW, including registration, maintenance of your student records, the provision of related services to you; and for other purposes related to your participation in the Program and our evaluation and improvement of the Program.
- Failure to provide complete or accurate information may result in UCW's inability to process your application.
- Your personal data may be shared with federal and provincial regulatory or government bodies as required or permitted by law.
- UCW processes admission applications in cooperation with its parent company, Global University Systems (GUS), which is based in the United Kingdom and the Netherlands. GUS may access and use your personal data outside of Canada for these purposes.
- Further information about the retention of your data, how it is collected, used and disclosed by UCW, and your rights to seek access to, correction or the destruction of your personal data are available in UCW's Privacy Policy. Our Privacy Policy also sets out the circumstances in which we may share information about you with our service providers based within and outside of Canada.
- Questions or complaints about this notice or the collection, use, disclosure or protection of your personal data should be directed to our Privacy Officer at 604-915-9607. In Canada, UCW complies with the Personal Information Protection Act and the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act. For the purposes of this legislation, by submitting this application you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal data as described above and in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

☒ I have read, understood and agree to all the above statements.

Terms and Conditions

1. Institution Policies

All students are responsible for understanding and adhering to UCW policies and procedures as outlined in the UCW Academic Calendar and policy documents available on the UCW website.

2. Tuition Refunds

Refer to Policy 3001 Student Tuition Refunds for complete details. The policy includes the following:

Written notification is required for all cancellations and withdrawals. Refunds will be based on the date of receipt of the official written notification. Refunds may take up to 30 business days to process.

2a. Domestic Students

Prospective domestic students who decide not to start their program or withdraw from course(s) up to the DROP/ADD deadline of the term receive a 100% refund of all monies paid, excluding:

- non-refundable application fees;
- non-refundable program or registration fees;
- withdrawal processing fee; and,
- any other non-refundable fees as identified in the UCW Calendar.

2b. International Students

Prospective international students who have been issued a Letter of Admission (LOA) or a Conditional Letter of Admission (CLOA) and who decide not to start their program or who withdraw from their registered course(s) on or before the drop/add deadline for the term will receive a refund ONLY if their student visa or study permit is denied by Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). Any refund of a required initial deposit (first term's tuition and compulsory fees), will exclude:

- non-refundable application fees;
- non-refundable program or registration fees;
- withdrawal processing fee;
- wire transfer fee; and,
- any other non-refundable fees as identified in the UCW Calendar.

Prospective International students will NOT be eligible for a refund and the initial deposit fee (first term's tuition and compulsory fees) will be forfeited and retained by UCW if:

- their student visa is denied by IRCC due to misrepresentation (directly or indirectly misrepresenting or withholding material facts) or by providing false or misleading information or documentation.
- the student or his/her representative misrepresents (directly or indirectly misrepresenting or withholding material facts) or provides false or misleading information or documentation to the University Canada West.

3. Wire Transfers

Any refunds to International students which are provided via wire transfer will have a $35 processing fee deducted from the refund total.

4. University Limited Financial Liability

The University's financial liability in relation to the student's enrolment is strictly limited to the tuition paid by or on behalf of the student and the refund policy. For greater certainty, the University is not liable for any other cost or loss (direct or indirect) of any kind whatsoever, including, but not limited to, the result of the cancellation or delay in the offering of a course or program, except as provided for through the applicable tuition refund policy. Students should note that any tuition payments received by the University from a government program, an agency, or a person other than the student will be refunded, on behalf of the student to that government, agency, or other person.

5. Medical Insurance

All on-campus UCW students are required to have current medical insurance while registered at University Canada West. International students must obtain private medical coverage for at least their first three (3) months in BC before they are eligible for coverage through the Medical Insurance Plan of BC.

6. Published Programs

University Canada West reserves the right to alter published programs, course dates, timetables, faculty, course specifications, the content of lectures and/or study materials and locations. The availability of all programs is subject to student demand.

7. Dates of Programs

University Canada West reserves the right to alter start dates of programs. All course timetables are subject to change.

8. Access to Online Resources

University Canada West does not guarantee availability of the online resources and other added-value services due to reasons beyond University Canada West's control, including technical faults and limitations.

9. Limit of the University's Responsibility

The University accepts no responsibility for the interruption or discontinuance of any class or course of instruction because of natural disasters/an act of God, fire, riot, strike, or any cause beyond the control of the University.

10. University's Right to Limit Enrolment

The University reserves the right to limit enrolment or registration in courses, to revise or cancel the curricula, or to cancel or revise any of the programs or courses listed.

11. Exclusion

To the extent permitted by law, we, other members of our group of companies and associated parties exclude all conditions, warranties and other terms which might otherwise be implied by statute, common law or the law of equity.

☒ I have read, understood and agree to all of the above statements.
